

As a valued exhibitor, we want to make sure we're doing everything we can to help your company have a productive and profitable exhibiting experience.

We've partnered with America's leading tradeshow productivity expert to create five strategic planning exercises to help you address critical factors that determine the difference between exhibiting success or failure.

We strongly encourage you to not only read each of these documents, but more importantly to gather your exhibit team and do the quick exercises presented. If you do, you will dramatically improve your odds of having a successful exhibiting experience.

CRITICAL SUCCESS FACTOR #1: DEFINE YOUR OUTCOMES

Clarity is power! Half of success is simply being crystal clear about what you want to accomplish. The other half is creating workable action plans and executing to achieve your goals. We recommend that you get together with your marketing and sales management team and work through the four-step process outlined below.

4. For each goal, create a Written Action Plan detailing the specific steps you must take to achieve the goal, who is responsible for accomplishing the goal, and how you will measure the results.

SMART Goal	Responsibility	Actions	Measurement
Example: By closing time we will capture 25 qualified leads	John Smith	 Determine qualifying questions. Rent and customize show lead retrieval system or create a hand-held lead form. Train exhibit staff on using lead form and how to ask qualifying questions. Track lead count and the end of each shift/day and end of show.
